

Omnibus Amendment Statute 2023

TITLE AND COMMENCEMENT

- a) The Council of the University makes the following statute under section 284 of the Education and Training Act 2020.
- b) This statute may be referred to as the Omnibus Amendment Statute 2023.
- c) This statute applies for the period from 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023 (unless repealed or replaced before this date) and replaces the Omnibus Amendment Statute which came into force on 1 January 2022.

APPLICATION

This statute applies to all students and staff members of the University.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this statute is to make changes to the regulations and policies named herein to:

- preserve the highest standards of excellence in education
- provide clarity for students and staff
- improve the student experience
- provide flexibility in extraordinary circumstances to reduce potential undue hardship to students and staff.

STATUTE

1. The provisions of the regulations and policies listed in the table below are changed as set out in the last column of the table. These changes take effect from 1 January 2023 and apply until 31 December 2023.

	Pro Vice-Chancellor (Education)	Assessment (Coursework, Tests and Examinations) Policy	19	Tests which count toward the final result for a course will be conducted under examination conditions.	Replace 19 with: Tests which count toward the final result for a course are not required to be conducted under invigilated conditions. The use of in-person or digital invigilation for tests will be determined by the Associate Dean (Learning and Teaching).	Rationale: To create opportunity for wider assessment design options in line with current pedagogical best practice. Change: Replace 19 with: Tests which count toward the final result for a course are not required to be conducted under invigilated conditions. The use of in-person or digital invigilation for tests will be determined by the Associate Dean (Learning and Teaching) or delegate.
			20	For stage one courses at least 50% of course assessment must occur in invigilated settings, normally achieved through formal examinations and/or tests sat under examination conditions. Exceptions must be approved by Education Committee.	Waive requirement for 2022.	Rationale: To create opportunity for wider assessment design options in line with current pedagogical best practice, while maintaining the possibility of having an invigilated assessment of at least 50%. Change: Waive 20 for 2023 by adding the following to the end of 20: The requirements of this item 20 are waived for 2023.
			35	Substantive changes to assessment arrangements that have been approved and published cannot be made without unanimous agreement from students, and approval by the Academic Head and Dean of Faculty. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> substantive changes to assessment arrangements must be agreed and publicised to students within the period of deleting the course from a student's enrolment without penalty. 	Replace 35 with: Associate Deans (Learning and Teaching) must review and approve where necessary substantive changes* to assessment made after the Canvas course outline has been published and	Rationale: The change made to 35 in 2022 is not required in 2023 so 35 reverts to the original text.
