Description

The Robertsons Prize in Insurance Law was established in 2013 by Robertsons, Barristers and Solicitors.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and encourage excellence in the study of insurance law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Robertsons Prize in Insurance Law.
2. The value of the Prize will be $1,500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the full or part-time student enrolled in a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) or Bachelor of Laws (Honours) (LLB(Hons)) who has achieved the highest overall mark in LAWCOMM 424 Insurance Law. In the event that LAWCOMM 424 is not offered in any year, the Prize shall be awarded to the student achieving the highest mark in LAWCOMM 453 Aspects of Insurance Law or LAWHONS 734 Issues in Insurance Law. As a minimum standard the student should have achieved at least an A- grade.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
5. The Prize will not be awarded in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee) shall determine, in consultation with the Donor, if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
