Description

The Prize was established in 1995 to mark the creation of the School of European Languages and Literatures, which was renamed the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics in 2014.

The main purpose of the Prize is to assist students enrolling in a Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma in Arts or Master of Arts majoring in European Languages, or a Postgraduate Diploma or Master of Arts in Translation Studies at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics Prize.
2. One Prize to the value of $1,000 will be awarded annually.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the student at the University of Auckland who has achieved the best GPA in a major in at least one of the European languages taught within the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics, and who has gone on to enrol in a Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Postgraduate Diploma in Arts or Master of Arts in at least one such language, or in a Postgraduate Diploma or Master of Arts in Translation Studies in the following year.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) in consultation with the Discipline Convenors of French, German and Russian, Italian, Spanish and Translation Studies.
5. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) will determine, in consultation with the disciplinary areas of French, German and Russian, Italian, Spanish and Translation Studies, if the Prize may be shared.

7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
