New Zealand is a modern country with a rich cultural heritage. Despite a relatively small population, New Zealand has become world renowned in many areas including scientific discovery, creative arts, sporting achievements and dynamic political and economic reform.

New Zealand is located in the South Pacific Ocean about 2,200km east of Australia and is made up of two main islands - the North Island and the South Island.

New Zealanders are very proud of their diverse heritage, strongly influenced by the indigenous Māori culture, the past British colony and its more recent migrants, mainly from the Pacific Islands and Asia. New Zealand people are well-travelled and outward-looking with a reputation for being warm, welcoming and friendly to visitors.

New Zealand is home to some of the world's most stunning and diverse natural landscapes. You can enjoy relaxing on white sandy beaches, snorkelling in pristine marine reserves, walking amongst lush, green, sub-tropical forests, skiing or snowboarding down snowy volcanoes or hiking across ancient glaciers. Life in New Zealand offers many opportunities for the traveller and adventurer.

Why study in New Zealand?

- As a safe and politically-stable country with a high standard of living, New Zealand is an ideal place for study.
- New Zealand enjoys a global reputation for technical innovation supported by its world-class education system and reputation for research excellence.
- Education in New Zealand is not just about imparting knowledge but also about generating original thinking.

Discover Auckland!

Study in Auckland, ranked fourth equal in the world's top cities

With a population of around 1.4 million, Auckland is New Zealand's largest city and the country's economic hub.

Auckland's unique geographic position means you can live in a large city but still be within half an hour of stunning beaches, mountain bike tracks, nature walks and tranquil islands. You can sail or kayak on sparkling harbours in the morning and hike in green subtropical forests in the afternoon. Add to that great cafés, restaurants and bars, excellent theatres, galleries and museums, terrific shopping and colourful Polynesian and Asian cultural influences. It's clear why Auckland has been ranked fourth equal out of 215 world cities for quality of life.*

Auckland's attractions

Sky Tower – Tallest building in the Southern Hemisphere with amazing views of the city.

Eden Park – New Zealand's largest stadium, hosting national and international rugby and cricket matches. Venue for the finals of the Rugby World Cup 2011 and the co-host for the Cricket World Cup 2015.

Mt Eden – Dormant volcanic cone, centrally located with spectacular views over the city. Great for a picnic.

Piha Beach – Most famous surf beach in New Zealand featuring black iron-ore sand. Just 40 minutes from central Auckland through the protected forest of the Waitakere Ranges.

Waiheke Island – Beautiful subtropical island famous for its golden sandy beaches, wineries and water sports, just 40 minutes by ferry from downtown Auckland.

Devonport – Just ten minutes by ferry from downtown, Devonport is a historic maritime village with a unique heritage and spectacular views of Auckland. Stroll around the many beaches, admire the colonial architecture and visit specialty shops, cafés and restaurants.

Newmarket Shopping Precinct – The fashion centre of Auckland has first-class shopping, movie theatres, restaurants and cafés; something for everyone.

Auckland Waterfront – Attractive urban beaches alongside a walking and cycling promenade, cafés, bars and restaurants as well as rollerblade, bicycle, sailboard and catamaran hire.

Rangitoto Island – This dormant volcano has lava tunnels, amazing views of the harbour and the world's largest pohutakawa forest (New Zealand's native Christmas tree known for its brilliant red flowers). Only a 35-minute ferry ride from downtown.

The Domain – This beautiful inner city park close to the University is home to the Auckland Museum where you can see cultural performances, priceless Māori treasures and amazing natural history.

Viaduct Basin – This downtown waterfront area has some of the best restaurants and bars in Auckland. The village was specifically created for the America's Cup yacht race and is known for its yachting activities.

Choosing your courses

Students are required to undertake a full-time course of study for one or two semesters. Courses are measured in points, with most undergraduate courses being worth 15 points each. The average full-time workload is 60 points in one semester and 120 points over two semesters in one year. The minimum full-time workload in one semester is 50 points.

The University aims to accommodate students in courses at the most appropriate level, taking into account their academic background. In general, students may select courses from across a wide range of programmes offered, provided the relevant prerequisites are met.

Acceptance onto the Study Abroad or Exchange programmes does not guarantee entry into specific courses (papers).

- Undergraduate courses are offered at Stages I, II, III and IV. Stage I courses are first level courses, with Stage II, III and IV courses being more advanced and more specialised.
- The first number of the course code shows the level of the course (eg, ENGLISH 201 is a Stage II course). Stage II, III and IV courses usually have prerequisite requirements. If you wish to take Stage II, III or IV courses, you should compare the prerequisites listed for that course with the courses you have taken at your home university.

- Course codes that begin with 6 or 7 are postgraduate courses. These courses require the equivalent of a New Zealand Bachelors degree (normally three years) as their prerequisite. However, all postgraduate courses selected are assessed on a case by case basis by the appropriate department.

For more information on courses, prerequisites and timetables, please visit

www.auckland.ac.nz/uaa/programme-courses

Campus life

iSPACE

iSPACE is a dedicated area in the Student Information Commons for international student activities and cultural festivals, helping you to make friends and meet local people. In addition, workshops and information sessions are regularly held in iSPACE to help you adjust to life at The University of Auckland and in New Zealand.

www.auckland.ac.nz/ispace

International Orientation

The International Office arranges an extensive orientation programme for new international students. The international orientation programme is designed to give you all the information you need about the University and living in Auckland. In addition, it's a great opportunity to make new friends through a number of social and cultural activities including a quiz night, a barbeque, an ethnic food evening, a games evening and various lunchtime events.

When you arrive you can sign up for a Uniguide, a current student who can help you to find your way around campus and answer any questions for the first few weeks.

www.auckland.ac.nz/international\_orientation

Clubs and societies

Keen to get involved in student activities? There's something for everyone, whether you're into student politics, want to write for the student magazine, join the team at the University radio station bFM, or volunteer for community projects. On campus there are around 120 clubs and societies, ranging from cultural associations from all over the world, to clubs for trekking, canoeing, photography, film and yoga. Simply sign up during Orientation Week or throughout the semester.

Recreation and sports

If fitness and sport are more your thing, the Recreation Centre on Symonds Street has a great range of facilities and services, including a sports hall, gym, climbing wall, squash courts and aerobics, yoga and dance classes. Meet and compete against your fellow students in one of the centre's social sports clubs including soccer, rugby, netball and badminton.

Supportive learning environment

Academic support

University Library

The University Library is the biggest of its kind in New Zealand and ranks with the top five university libraries in Australasia. As well as the General Library, 11 subject-specific libraries cater for students in various disciplines.

The University Library offers:

- print, multimedia and microtext collections totalling over 2.2 million items, including unique manuscript and archive collections
- 24/7 access to more than 700 databases, 82,900 electronic journals, 295,500 electronic books and 7,000 electronic course readings
- computers and study spaces
- courses and tours to help you become a confident user of all its resources.

Information Commons

You'll discover every opportunity to develop your IT, information literacy, English language and learning skills here. Whichever campus you are based at, you'll be spoilt for choice with access to multi-purpose computers, printers, scanners, photocopiers and wireless networking technology.

Student Learning Centre

Are you keen to achieve the best in your studies? The Student Learning Centre's academic tutors are here to help. They run regular workshops to help you develop effective learning strategies, from time management and study organisation, to exam preparation techniques.

Improve your foreign language skills or practise your English by signing up for a language exchange partner on campus.

www.slc.auckland.ac.nz

English language support on campus

Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA) is a free service that helps to identify your level of English and guide you to the most appropriate English language support. The English Language Self Access Centre (ELSAC) offers free services to improve your academic English skills, including language learning materials, plus help with academic writing, listening skills and pronunciation.

www.delna.auckland.ac.nz

www.elsac.auckland.ac.nz

Personal support

International Student Information Centre

The International Student Information Centre is the first point of contact for all international students on a wide range of matters including enquiries about studying and living in Auckland, immigration, health, work and other general matters. You can also renew your student visa online at the centre.

www.auckland.ac.nz/international

Health and counselling

General practice medical clinics are available at the City, Grafton, Tāmaki and Epsom Campuses. Counselling services are offered at City, Grafton and Epsom, as well as a dental clinic and physiotherapist at the City Campus. Grafton and Tāmaki have optometry clinics, and the City Campus has other specialist services, such as dermatology.

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. All international students are legally required to have appropriate medical and travel insurance. The University of Auckland offers a scheme that meets these requirements.

www.auckland.ac.nz/prearrival/insurance

Students with disabilities

Support may be available for international students with disabilities on a case by case basis. The disabilities service provides a broad range of services including assessment of support needs, note-taking services, support with academic reading, writing and mathematics, and special accommodations for tests and exams, if required. Some costs may be charged to international students. These would be negotiated on a case by case basis.

Contact us early so that we can assist you with your support requirements.

Accommodation and costs including fees

Accommodation

Living in a University-managed residence offers you an opportunity to experience the best that student life has to offer and the chance to make life-long friends. The residences provide a safe, comfortable and fun place to live. Choose either a catered Hall of Residence or a self-catered flat. The residences have internet access in the bedrooms and membership of the University Recreation Centre is included in your fees. All are located within easy walking distance of the City Campus, as well as many of Auckland's main attractions.

Many residences are quality assured by Qualmark and The New Zealand Association of Tertiary Education Accommodation Professionals - a recognition that your accommodation is amongst the best in the country.

Application dates for accommodation

You must apply for University accommodation online. Applications for accommodation for the full academic year and Semester One 2011 opened on 1 August 2010 and Semester Two only applications open on 1 April 2011.

We strongly recommend that you apply even before you have confirmation about your University admission so you have the best chance of getting a place in a residence. For Study Abroad groups, accommodation placements are made in consultation with your Study Abroad coordinator.

Accommodation during summer or for early arrival before the start of the semester can be arranged.

If you are under 18 years old, special arrangements apply (under the terms of the Code of Practice for International Students).

For full details about all accommodation options available to you and for the online application form go to www.auckland.ac.nz/accommodation

Private accommodation*

If you prefer not to live in a University-managed residence or do not get a place, other options are available.

Private student accommodation –

Accommodation Services can assist you with information about student accommodation options near the campus.

Homestays – In a homestay you live with a family, will have your own room, and meals and other services are provided. Please note that homestays are generally not close to the campus.

Flating – You share a house or flat with other residents and are responsible for paying the bills according to the details in the tenancy agreement.

Contact

Accommodation Services:

Phone: +64 9 373 7599 ext 87691

Email: accom@auckland.ac.nz
