This scholarship is intended to support research concerned with improving educational leadership. We are particularly interested in studies focused on either leadership practices in educational settings, and/or approaches to leadership learning.

POTENTIAL TOPIC AREAS INCLUDE:

- Leadership Practice: Leadership of curriculum, collaboration, problems of practice or policy; intra- or inter-personal, organisational or system leadership.
- Leadership Learning: as it occurs online or in-person.
- Leadership for equity and inclusion

We welcome proposals for studies focused on success of leadership/leadership learning for Maori and Pacific people. We aim to cultivate a network of educational leadership scholars whose work makes a difference for all the children, young people and educational communities they serve.
