(i) This conjoint plan can be completed in five and a half years, though it involves a heavier-than-normal workload in four of those years. Students may choose to take a lighter load and extend their study period.

(ii) In Years 2 and 3, the order of LAW 201–241 courses can be adjusted. The diagram shows one possible arrangement.

(iii) Students planning a 60- or 120-point Law Exchange in their final year may need to rearrange their degree structure and consider Summer School enrolment.

* Course may include non-law courses such as General Education, Academic English Language Requirement (AELR), or Waipapa Taumata Rau (WTR) courses.

Although LAW 418 is an LLB elective, it is required by the Council for Legal Education (CLE) for students intending to be admitted to the Bar.

 Other conjoint courses may be taken in any of Years 2–6, including Summer School.
