

LAWGENRL 418 – Community Law Internship Paper
Suitable Organisations
Organisation	Contact	Email	S1	S2	SS	Notes
Aotearoa New Zealand Centre for Indigenous Peoples and the Law	Professor Claire Charters	c.charters@auckland.ac.nz	Y	Y	X	May be available in Summer School.
New Zealand Centre for Environmental Law	Professor Caroline Foster	cfos011@UoA.auckland.ac.nz	Y	Y	X
Auckland Community Law Centre	TBC	info@aclc.org.nz	Y	Y	X
Youth Law	TBC	info@youthlaw.co.nz	Y	Y	Y
Police Prosecution Service	Karima M'Raiagh	Karima.MRaiagh@police.govt.nz	Y	Y	Y	Police Prosecution Services will advertise their application periods and application process on the Part II and Part III–IV Canvas pages. Students must follow the outlined process and may only submit applications during the advertised application periods. NZ Police vetting required.
Environmental Defence Society	TBC	manager@eds.org.nz	Y	Y	Y	Prefer students who have completed or are enrolled in resource management or environmental law. Administrative law and Treaty-related knowledge are advantageous.
Landmark Chambers	Deborah Manning	deborah@landmarkchambers.co.nz	Y	Y	Y	Open to 3rd or 4th-year law students, preferably in Honours. Strong academic record required. Useful to have studied administrative law and human rights. Preference for students with demonstrated commitment to human rights (e.g. student union, Amnesty International).