

Welcome to the University of Auckland Early Childhood Centres and thank you for entrusting your tamariki with us. Below you will find information regarding the term and conditions of enrolment with us.

Although unlikely, our fees are subject to change to reflect Government subsidy level changes. It is expected however that fees will be reviewed annually in October and effective January the following year.

It is the whānau responsibility to advise the Kaiwhakahaere/Centre Leader of any change of circumstances that may affect the fees charged i.e a change from student to staff or community. The University of Auckland reserves the right to charge the difference if not advised of the change.

Any third-party contributions are the responsibility of whānau to arrange, apply for and manage; however, the Kaiwhakahaere/Centre Leader will support you with these applications in any way they can.

The enrolment agreement is a private agreement between both parties and needs to be agreed to as such. If any party, no longer agrees to the enrolment conditions (specifically for the benefit of the tamaiti individual needs) then a new agreement will need to be reached with two-weeks notice.

We have a minimum three day a week booking and require two weeks' notice, for any booking changes or cancellation of enrolment including tamariki graduating to begin kura/school, although we try to accommodate these as soon as we can.

We value the partnerships we have with whānau and encourage you to talk to us if you are struggling to meet your payments or if you are having any challenges with your tamaiti, there may be options and support available to you that you may not be aware of.

Tamaiti/childcare fees charged & FAQ's

What do I need to have in place before my tamaiti/child can begin at the service, and when can I start?

When all documents are received, you will be asked to pay your two weeks deposit (or complete WINZ applications and a part deposit); then your tamaiti/child's enrolment will be confirmed with the Kaiwhakahaere/Centre Leader confirming when they have a space available for your tamaiti to start. Your first week's fees will be charged from their start date.

What are the payment expectations?

We charge for all absences including statutory holidays. The only time we do not charge is over the two-week Christmas and New Year closure period – these dates are given around October/November each year.

Fees are to be paid two weeks in advance by Automatic Payment, Internet Banking or Salary Sacrifice if you are a UOA employee. Paying your deposit and first regular payment from your child's first week will ensure that your account aligns with this requirement. This is to remain in advance at all times to cover the notice period. Failure to keep fees up to date may result in your enrolment ending, and the debt being passed on to a collection agency, for which the whānau will be responsible for any associated costs incurred.

Do you provide make up days and changes to enrolment days and times?

We do not provide make up days of any kind.

Changes to enrolled days and times are possible, with two weeks written notice.

Do you provide statements?

We do, these arrive in your email inbox each week. You will be invoiced two weeks in advance. If you are not receiving them, please let us know straight away.

Who can get Employee and student fees?

Employee fees are only applicable for fixed term and permanent employees.
Student fees are for students not in UoA fixed term or permanent employment.

Is there a late fee if I collect my tamaiti/child after their booked hours?

We will always try and support our whānau/family where we can, if you are running late, please let us know. It is important to review your tamaiti booking to ensure that they match their regular attendance. Being late can have an impact on our staff meeting their own personal commitments, so please ensure you plan your day to be on time.

If you are a student and you get stuck, don't panic, if your child attends longer than their short-day booking, their fee will change to the full day booking, not the late fee below.

Attendance beyond our licenced hours is as follows: $6 for the first minute and $3 per minute following applies. This covers some of the over time we will be required to pay our Kaiako.

Do you support WINZ subsidies and other support grants?

Absolutely! These ideally will be completed before your tamaiti/child begins or during their enrolment if your circumstances change and you are able to receive this.

Come and talk to us if you require any support with this or check out the WINZ website

The University of Auckland ECE Centres offers the 20 Hour ECE subsidy provided by the Ministry of Education. The subsidy is provided to children aged 3 years and older and under the strict rules given by the Ministry of Education. Details of this subsidy can be found here: <https://www.education.govt.nz/early-childhood/funding-and-data/20-hours-ece-for-ece-services/>

Holidays and discounts

Sibling discount

A discount of 10% is offered to whānau with two or more tamariki enrolled at UOA ECE center.

- Multiple tamariki or whānau discount only applies to the youngest of the tamariki and only until the tamaiti turns three. Once the additional tamaiti turns three no ongoing discounts apply, as they will be accessing the 20-hour ECE subsidy.
- When the older of the sibling leaves, the multiple sibling discount will also end. If the tamaiti is still under the age of three, regular fees will then be charged.
- The multiple tamariki/children discount is only applied to one tamaiti/child. If you have three or more tamariki/children, this will be case-by-case and to be discussed with the ECE General Manager via the Kaiwhakahaere or Centre Leader.

Holidays and Absences

- UoA Students and Employees - If a child is away for a full week and up to three weeks, a UoA absence discount can be applied, which is half of the normal fee. Application is required in writing at least one week in advance. You can access this UoA Absence discount for a maximum of four weeks per year.
- Community - If a child is away for a full week, UoA Absence discount can be applied, which is half the normal fee. Application is required in writing at least one week in advance. You can access this UoA absence discount for a maximum of two weeks per year.
- For absences of less than a week, full fees are payable.
- Absences in excess of the three weeks will require payment of full fees to retain your tamaiti place as we will lose the Government funding after 15 days.
- If absences are not advised in advance, full fees will be charged.
- Where a public holiday falls on a day a tamaiti is enrolled, the parent shall be charged for that day - with the exception of Easter Tuesday, which is a University holiday.
- Fees will not be charged for the period over Christmas when the University closes (approximately 2 weeks) these dates are confirmed closer to the end of each year in line with any fee increases.

University of Auckland Students Exceptions

- Fees will not be charged for absences during the months of December and January if notification of a child's absence has been received in writing during November.
