

Co-Authorship Form/Statement of Contribution Form

Instructions:

1. University of Auckland policies permit the inclusion of co-authored work and/or contributions from others in a doctoral thesis.
2. This form is where you, as the doctoral candidate, provide details about co-authored work (whether published or unpublished). It is known as the Statement of Contribution Form under the current Statute.
3. You must complete the form, and all co-authors / co-contributors must sign it.
4. A separate form must be completed for each co-authored work / contribution.
5. The form(s) must be inserted after the table of contents in your thesis.

Notes:

1. Co-authored works may be included in a thesis if the candidate has written no less than 65% of the text, and this has been confirmed by way of the co-authors' signatures below.
2. For candidates under the 2016 Statute, note that the definition of co-authored work does not only include written contributions; it also includes (but is not limited to) contributions such as sharing a laboratory or data.
3. This page is for instructions only and should not be included in your thesis. Please complete and include only Sections 1–5. If you have any queries, please email sgs-exams@auckland.ac.nz.
