

Application Guide for Study Abroad Students

1. Go to the University of Auckland website www.auckland.ac.nz/applynow and click on "Start your Application for Admission." If you have started an application before, you can click "Already started your application?"

Home / Study / Applications and admissions / Apply now

Apply now

Start your journey to the University with an Application for Admission.

Start your Application for Admission

Congratulations! You're ready to apply for your chosen programme. If you're not sure how to apply, read the guides below.

Let's get started >

Already started your application?

Maybe you're partway through your application for admission or want to check its status. Perhaps you want to accept or decline an offer?

Jump back in >

2. Create a new identity.

Create a new identity

First name

Middle name

Last name

Is there a preferred name that is different from your full legal name? Yes No

Email address

Date of birth DD MM YYYY

Gender

National Student Number

Next >

3. Your University of Auckland 'Student ID' has been created. Please remember your UoA ID number for future enquiries.

4. Declare your first language.

- a) If English is not your first language, you need to submit evidence of English proficiency. Please refer to pages 7-9 of this guide regarding English proficiency documents.

If you click 'Yes' to the question asking if you have an English language test. You must submit the English test result at the end of your application in the 'Supporting Information' section. Otherwise, you will be unable to submit your application. If you don't have a test result to upload, please click 'No' to this question.

If you click 'No' to this question, you will be required to provide evidence of English proficiency after you have submitted your application. Please check the 'Things you need to do' list.

The screenshot shows the 'English Language Proficiency' section of the application form. The question 'Have you completed an English language test?' has the 'Yes' radio button selected and circled in red. Below this, the test type is 'IELTS (Academic)', the date is '6 May 2019', and a 'Done' button is visible. The 'Programme' section below shows 'Exchange or Study Abroad' selected.

- b) If English is your first language, you can continue.

As you fill out your application, it will automatically save, so that you can exit and come back to complete it at any time.

The screenshot shows the 'Have you previously studied (at any level) in New Zealand?' question with the 'No' radio button selected. Below it, the 'What is your first language?' question has 'English' selected in a dropdown menu.

The screenshot shows the 'Next >' and 'Save and exit' buttons at the bottom of the form.

- If you're applying through an international agency, or your home university has a partnership with the University of Auckland, please click 'Yes' to the question below and enter their name.

Note: Please enter your own agency. Study Abroad Auckland is just an example agency – please do not select this in your application.

- Enter your current and previous academic history.

- Select the programme "Certificate of Proficiency for Overseas" (COPOS), and then select the correct semester.

NOTE: Please do not select the wrong programme (e.g., Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, etc.) Our Semester One runs from February to June (northern hemisphere spring semester) and Semester Two runs from July to November (northern hemisphere fall semester). For example, if you come to study in February 2024, please select 2024 Semester One.

The screenshot shows a multi-step application form for the University of Auckland. The progress bar at the top indicates steps 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, with step 3 being the current step. The 'Programme' section asks 'Which programme are you applying for?' and has a dropdown menu with 'Exchange or Study Abroad' selected. Below this, the 'Programme' dropdown is open, showing 'Certificate of Proficiency for Overseas' selected and circled in red. A note below the dropdown states: 'Note: This programme is for international fee paying Study Abroad students who are applying for a short term of study - usually for one or two semesters, but can be a shorter term. The standard estimated fee for this programme is based on the full-time enrolment for a semester (60 points). Click here for more information on this programme.' The 'Major/Specialisation' dropdown is set to 'Certificate of Proficiency (Default)'. A red warning icon indicates 'You have reached the maximum number of majors/specialisations you can apply for.' The 'When do you want to start your studies?' section has a dropdown menu with '2021 Semester One' selected and circled in red. The 'Campus Location' section has a 'City' dropdown. The 'Scholarships' section asks 'Have you been awarded a scholarship or other funding that will pay for your University of Auckland tuition fees?' with radio buttons for 'Yes' and 'No' (selected).

8. Select how long you will study with us – 1 or 2 semesters.

The screenshot shows the 'Supplementary Programme Information' section of the application form. The progress bar at the top indicates steps 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, with step 4 being the current step. The section title is 'Supplementary Programme Information' and the sub-section is 'Programme specific question'. The question is 'Please indicate if you've been nominated by your home university for a 1 or 2 semester exchange.' Below the question is a dropdown menu with '1 Semester' selected and circled in red. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Next >' and 'Save and exit'.

9. Upload supporting documents like your university academic transcript and English language proficiency (if applicable). Note that you cannot submit your application without uploading a copy of your academic transcript. This is an essential document required for admission.

Progress bar: 5/6

Supporting Information

Please provide the following information to support your application:

English language test Help

IELTS (Academic)

English Language Proficiency
(Required for application submission)

 Replace

Tertiary study Help

Bachelor of Business
Beijing Normal University, 2018-2022

Academic transcript
(Required for application submission)

 Replace

10. Review and submit your application.

Your application is now complete

What happens next?

You will receive an email acknowledging your application (within 48 hours).

You can check the status of your application here at any time and will be able to view any further items we may request to progress your application.

We will contact you by email to inform you about the result of your application.

See your applications

Other information

Applying for accommodation
Applying for a New Zealand Visa
Scholarships information

Contacting the University

AskAuckland: Your online help and support centre
Contact our student support team

Phone (within New Zealand): 0800 61 62 63
Phone (outside New Zealand): +64 9 373 7513 or +64 9 373 7999

Certificate of Proficiency for Overseas - Certificate of Proficiency
2021 Semester One

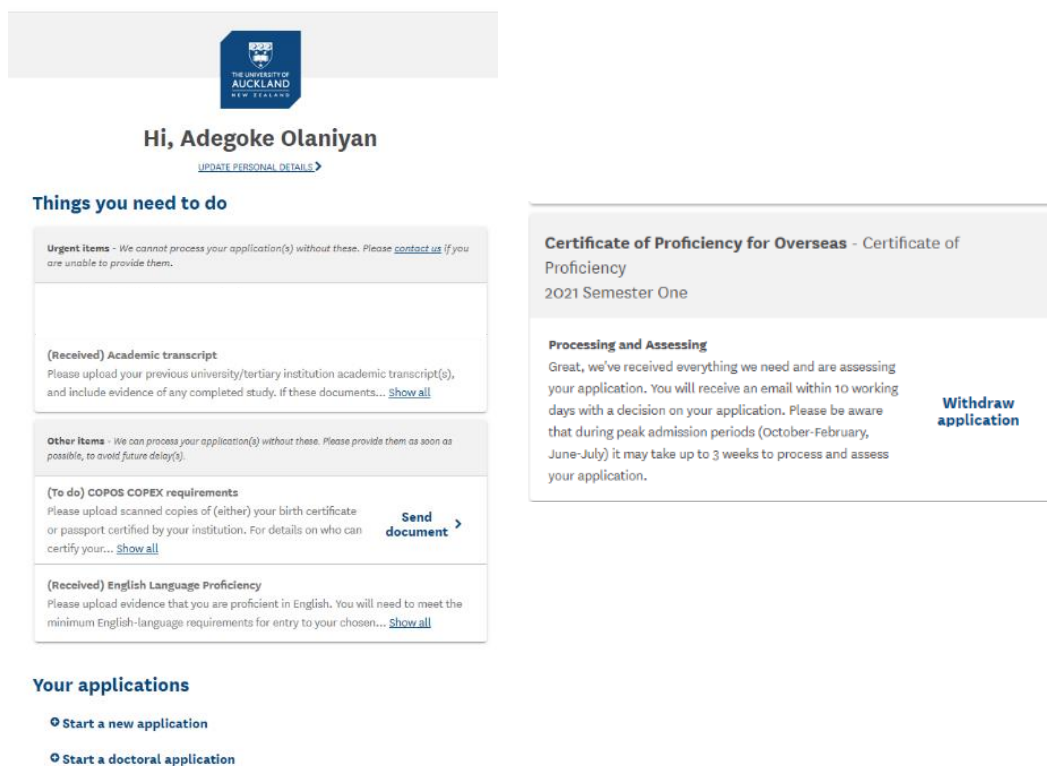

Submitting
Your application will be submitted shortly. Do not submit a new application for this programme. Please refresh or check back later to view your status.

11. After you have submitted your application, you can log back in after 24 hours to upload any additional documents you need to complete your application:

- Academic transcript: Upload a copy of your official or unofficial academic University transcript in English, or your application will not be assessed. This document does not need to be certified, but must contain your name and the name of your home university.

- English proficiency: Students for whom English is not their first language are required to provide evidence of English proficiency. We accept a number of English language test results including IELTS, TOEFL, Cambridge, MELAB, Pearsons and other alternatives. Please visit our website for details: www.auckland.ac.nz/is-english. On pages 7-9, you can find a list of alternative proofs of English proficiency for Study Abroad students from some countries.
- COPOS COPEX requirements: This is to upload a certified copy of your birth certificate or passport. To be recognised as a certified copy, it needs to be signed and stamped by a staff member from your exchange office, or notarised. Alternatively, your home university can email a copy to our Study Abroad office directly at studyabroad@auckland.ac.nz.

The screenshot shows the user interface of the University of Auckland's Study Abroad application portal. At the top, the University of Auckland logo is displayed. Below it, the user is greeted with "Hi, Adegoke Olaniyan" and a link to "UPDATE PERSONAL DETAILS".

The main content is divided into two columns. The left column is titled "Things you need to do" and contains four sections:

- Urgent items: A warning that applications cannot be processed without these items. A "contact us" link is provided for those unable to provide them.
- (Received) Academic transcript: A section for uploading previous university/tertiary institution transcripts, including evidence of completed study. A "show all" link is present.
- Other items: A section for uploading items that can be processed without them. A "send document" button is visible.
- (To do) COPOS COPEX requirements: A section for uploading scanned copies of birth certificates or passports certified by the institution. A "send document" button is visible.
- (Received) English Language Proficiency: A section for uploading evidence of English proficiency. A "show all" link is present.

The right column is titled "Certificate of Proficiency for Overseas - Certificate of Proficiency 2021 Semester One". It includes a "Processing and Assessing" section with a "Withdraw application" button. The text states: "Great, we've received everything we need and are assessing your application. You will receive an email within 10 working days with a decision on your application. Please be aware that during peak admission periods (October-February, June-July) it may take up to 3 weeks to process and assess your application."

At the bottom, there is a "Your applications" section with two options: "Start a new application" and "Start a doctoral application".

Alternative evidence for English proficiency 2023 (COPEX/COPOS)

*New Zealand and Australian citizens are not included as they are domestic students and therefore do not fall under the international student language requirement.

1. Australia (non-Australian citizens who are nominated by Australian partners)

- 50% in an English-intensive subject¹ in a recognised Year 12 qualification, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree, or
- Completion of a Foundation Programme from a Go8 University², through a Go8 University or a recognised partner institution, with 70% or Grade B in Academic English

2. Canada (non-Canadian citizens who are nominated by Canadian partners)

- 50% in an English-intensive subject¹ in a recognised Year 12 qualification, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree (if the degree is taught in English)

3. Denmark

- Weighted grade average of 6 in English A or 9 in English B (Studentereksamen), or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium

4. Finland

- Grade of 5 (scale 0-7) in English Language in Ylioppilastutkinoto or Studentexamen, or grade 8 (scale 4-10) in English or English A language in the Upper Secondary School Certificate, or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium

5. Germany

- Grade of 3 (scale 1-6 and 1 = very good) or 10 (scale 1-15 and 15 = very good) in English Language in Abitur, or
- Score of B2 in each of the three sections of the DAAD test, or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium

6. Hong Kong

- Level 4 in English in Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE), or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree (if the degree has been taught in English)

7. India

- Indian School Certificate, All India Senior School Certificate, and Grade 12 English from specified Higher Secondary State Boards with grade over 70%, or
- Grade 12 English from all other Higher Secondary State Boards with grade over 80%, or
- If degree has been taught in English, and awarding institution is on this list) – i.e. O.P. Jindal Global University (exchange partner)

8. Ireland

- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

9. Malaysia

- C Grade in English in STPM, or
- C Grade in English 1119 (English as a First Language paper in Malaysian SPM), or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree (if the degree has been taught in English)

10. Norway

- Pass (minimum 4 on the 1-6 scale with 6 being the highest) in English Language in the Vitnemal, or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium

10. Singapore

- E (pass) grade in Knowledge & Inquiry (at H2 level) or a C grade in the General Paper (at H1 level) from Singapore-Cambridge GCE Advanced Level³, or
- National University of Singapore High School Diploma, or
- Completed three-year diploma (full-time) conducted in English, from one of the following polytechnics: Singapore Polytechnic, Ngee Ann Polytechnic, Temasek Polytechnic, Nanyang Polytechnic and Republic Polytechnic, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

11. Sweden

- VG or grade of 4 in English in the Avgangsbetyg or Slutbetyg, or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

12. The Netherlands

- Grade of 7 (in a scale 0-10) in English Language in the Voorbereidend Wetenschappelijk Onderwijs (VWO) (Gymnasium A/B and Atheneum A/B) Diplomas (university preparatory education), or
- A letter of recommendation from a lecturer/International Office at your home university stating that you have sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the student's study of English as a Second Language or study in the English medium, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

13. UK (non-UK citizens who are nominated by UK partners)

- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

14. USA (non-USA citizens who are nominated by USA partners)

- Completion of a recognised two-year community college Associate degree, or
- Completion of High School Diploma with a minimum attendance of at least 2 years, or
- SAT Reasoning Test with an Evidence-Based Reading and Writing score of 600, or
- Within the last two years, a minimum one year of full-time study at a university recognised by NARIC or NOOSR and the degree should be a comparable to New Zealand university degree

¹Biology, Classical Studies, Economics, English Language, English Literature, History, History of Art, Geography

²Monash University, University of New South Wales, The University of Sydney, The University of Western Australia, The University of Melbourne, The University of Queensland, The University of Adelaide, Australian National University

³Must undertake Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment (DELNA) screening and any stipulated follow-up action within 6 months of enrolment at the University of Auckland

* The same waiver applies for universities with campuses located in other countries but all the courses are taught in English

- University of Nottingham Ningbo
- Monash University (Malaysian campus)
- CUHK Shenzhen

* Exchange and Study Abroad (COPOS/COPEX) applicants who have successfully completed one of the International Secondary Qualifications or Country Specific Qualifications (listed above) will not be subject to the two-year validity period for prior study completed in English.