Real New Zealand Adventure

Start your gap year with the University of Auckland

Seize this perfect chance to explore cultures, travel, work, make friends, and expand your global network before your next stage of life.

Auckland, a great place to study and live

Spend a year in Auckland, New Zealand's biggest and most diverse city! As the best-connected city in the country, you'll have easy access to all the natural wonders of the country and the rest Pacific region.

What does a gap year look like with us

First, you will spend a semester (4 months) at the University of Auckland studying interesting subject areas. This will give you an opportunity to get familiarised with the country and get connected with local kiwi students. You will then go on to further adventures working and travelling around the country for the last part of your gap year.
