I acknowledge the work of all those before us who have demonstrated courageous leadership for Te Ao Māori. E mihi kau ana ki a rātou.

Our mission is to ensure that Māori ways of thinking, being and doing thrive at the University, and we are well on this journey. Achieving this means the knowledge produced by us will positively contribute to whānau, community and iwi-led development. Flourishing Māori communities are central to a sustainable, thriving and socially-just Aotearoa New Zealand.

He kai kei aku ringa.

The means to flourishing are in my hands

Ināia tonu nei – Get involved now

The Whāia Te Pae Tawhiti programme in Year 13 solidified my decision to study at the University of Auckland. Meeting Māori Engineering students like Tāmoko Ormsby inspired me and showed me that representation matters. It also showed me that success was within reach for kura kaupapa kids like me.

“After completing my Engineering degree in 2022, I decided to pursue a PhD in Civil Engineering, focusing on how natural hazard events impact marae. This path has been about resilience, growth and giving back to those who paved the way. Believe in the belief others have in you!”

Haukapuanui

Te Arawa, Ngāti Tūwharetoa, Ngāti Raukawa, Ngāti Kahungunu, Ngāti Pāhauwera, Te Āti Haunui-a-Pāpārangi, Ngāi Tahu
Student: PhD in Civil Engineering

Now's the perfect time to start your journey with Waipapa Taumata Rau. These programmes are designed to help high-school students explore options, connect with others, and take confident steps toward the future.

Waipapa Ōhanga Rau (WŌR)

Waipapa Ōhanga Rau is an on-campus day experience for Year 11, 12, and 13 Māori students from Tāmaki Makaurau. It's designed to familiarise rangatahi with the diverse nests of opportunity at Waipapa Taumata Rau. Tailored to each year level, WŌR explores subject choices, career pathways, scholarships, accommodation, study programmes, university entrance, and the application process. Your Tāmaki-based careers adviser, school, or kura will receive an invitation and can confirm your attendance.

Whāia te Pae Tawhiti (WTPT)

Whāia te Pae Tawhiti is an on-campus experience for Year 13 Māori students from outside Tāmaki Makaurau. It's a chance to explore Waipapa Taumata Rau, connect with other tauira, and experience life in the city. Students will meet Māori support staff, hear from current tauira, and gain insight into university life. The experience includes attending Mānawa Mai Open Day, touring Halls of Residence, and visiting key spots around Tāmaki Makaurau. With support from student mentors, WTPT helps tauira build confidence, make connections, and prepare for their university journey.

STEM Online NZ

STEM Online NZ is a free, interactive learning tool for secondary school students and teachers. Created by Aotearoa subject specialists, it supports classroom teaching with videos, animations, quizzes, games, and worksheets for hands-on activities. Each course fully covers a maths or science standard (to Excellence level) and works well for blended learning, revision, extra practice, or lessons. Register online to access this resource and bring STEM to life in your classroom or at home.

The Whakapiki Ake Project

Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences (FMHS)

The Whakapiki Ake Project is a recruitment programme that actively engages with rangatahi Māori enrolled in secondary schools. The project promotes health as an exciting career and encourages Māori students to enter FMHS programmes. Whakapiki Ake introduces health career options, supports students to apply to FMHS, helps with the transition to tertiary study and provides financial assistance for successful applicants.

Pacific Academy

Pacific Academy is a free tutorial service for Māori and Pacific learners enrolled in NCEA level 2 or 3 maths and science externals.

The weekly tutorials run in term 3 across three locations in Tāmaki Makaurau, offering small-group support that covers specific skills. The programme uses previous exam questions, which are distributed to students at each of the sessions. In addition to the tutorials, there are opportunities to learn by attending other programmes at the university.

Apollo

Faculty of Engineering and Design

The Apollo Programme is designed for Year 12 Māori and Pacific students, irrespective of their current proficiency in calculus. Whether students are seeking to strengthen their foundational understanding or aiming to master advanced calculus topics, our experienced tutors offer guidance tailored to individual needs. Apollo provides a unique opportunity for students to receive expert tutoring in a university setting, paving clear pathways into Engineering and the University of Auckland.

Admission – How do I get in?

To be accepted automatically into any degree at Waipapa Taumata Rau University of Auckland, you will need to:

- Achieve a University Entrance qualification based on NCEA, Cambridge International, IB or another recognised, equivalent qualification
- Meet the rank score and any other degree-specific requirements for your chosen programme
- Meet the Academic English Language Requirement (AELR)

Rank score

Your NCEA rank score is based on your best 80 credits at Level 3 or higher over a maximum of five approved subjects.

These credits are then weighted by awarding points based on the level of achievement

- Excellence (4 points)
- Merit (3 points)
- Achieved (2 points)

A maximum of 24 credits are counted for each approved subject. The maximum rank score is 320. Approved subjects are determined by NZQA.

If you achieve less than 80 credits, the rank score will be based on your total Level 3 credits gained over a maximum of five approved subjects and weighted by the level of achievement.

Other Degree-Specific Requirements

You must meet the admission requirements for your specific programme(s) of study.

University Entrance

University Entrance through the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) is one of the most common admission types for entry into the University. It has the following requirements:

*From specified lists of standards. Go to nzqa.govt.nz for a list of approved subjects.

In addition to achieving University Entrance, some of our undergraduate programmes require you to have taken specific subjects and gained minimum credits in certain subjects. Some programmes have other requirements such as a portfolio, audition and/or interview.

To find out more about the guaranteed entry requirements for your intended programme(s), please visit our website. auckland.ac.nz/find-a-study-option

Academic English Language Requirement (AELR)

In addition to any University Entrance Literacy standard, you must meet the Academic English Language Requirement either through your entry qualification or during your first 12 months of study. This applies if you are applying for admission to an undergraduate programme and you are a domestic student, or an international student applying based on a New Zealand secondary school qualification, or applying with results from another New Zealand tertiary institution. Go online for further details.

auckland.ac.nz/aelr

You can calculate your rank score here rankscorecalculator.auckland.ac.nz

Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes

UTAS reserve places in the University's undergraduate programmes for applicants who have achieved the University Entrance (UE) standard but have not met the general entry requirements for the programme of their choice. UTAS applicants are required to meet specific eligibility criteria.

The UTAS Policy is designed to ensure that the University provides equal educational opportunities to eligible Māori and Pacific students, and students from other underrepresented groups who have the potential to succeed at our world-ranked University. UTAS students are expected to meet the same high academic standards as all other undergraduate students at the University. UTAS places are available to eligible:

- Māori applicants
- Pacific applicants
- Applicants with disabilities
- Applicants from constrained economic backgrounds
- Applicants who have themselves or whose parents/primary guardian(s) have been granted refuge in New Zealand

UTAS is not available to international students.

Support Available for UTAS students

We provide a range of support for students who are admitted through UTAS, including:

- Orientation
- Help with course selection
- Pastoral support
- Academic tutorials
- Tuākana Learning Communities for Māori and Pacific students
- Student Disability Services

Contact us about UTAS

Alternative pathways to study

We have a number of alternative pathways to bridge the gap between secondary school and Waipapa Taumata Rau.

The University of Auckland Tertiary Foundation Certificate (TFC)

This full-time, one-year specialist foundation programme will help bridge your way into tertiary studies. The TFC helps you prepare for and enter the BA and BEd (Teaching), as well as the BSc and most other limited entry programmes, provided that you meet the entry grade requirement. Through the TFC you will gain a University Entrance qualification with which to apply for bachelors programmes at the University of Auckland and elsewhere. The TFC is delivered at the City, South Auckland and Tai Tokerau campuses.

auckland.ac.nz/tfc

Hikitia Te Ora – Certificate in Health Sciences (CertHSc)

Full-time: 1 year

Points per degree: 120

Location: Grafton Campus

Highlights

- Follow a pathway into Nursing, Health Sciences or Biomedical Science.
- Enjoy a combination of lectures, tutorials, lab sessions, wānanga, online learning and self-directed study within a culturally safe environment.

Hikitia Te Ora may be your best starting point towards a health career. This one-year programme provides Māori and Pacific students with the skills and content knowledge needed for health professional study in the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences. If you're a school leaver or returning to study, the CertHSc can help strengthen your sciences, improve your academic writing and prepare you for success.

Anyone wishing to be considered for the CertHSc must attend the Māori and Pacific Admission Scheme's (MAPAS) General Interviews.

He Pūaotanga New Start

He Pūaotanga | New Start will help you develop the confidence and skills for studying at university. You must be 20 years or over, be a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident, and have a good command of English. New Start is a realistic introduction to first-year study. These courses are part-time and provide a pathway into a range of undergraduate programmes at the University of Auckland.

- New Start General NSGEN 47 will prepare you for an undergraduate degree in Arts, Business, Education, or Law.
- Mathematics Preparation for University NSMAT 14 is designed to be taken with New Start General NSGEN 47 to prepare you for entry into the University of Auckland's Business School. Both courses are compulsory for those who plan to gain admission from New Start to Business School.
- Mathematics Fundamentals NSMAT 10 is a short, intensive course, taught on Saturdays in a workshop format. It's designed to prepare you for NSMAT 14.

If you apply for NSMAT courses, you'll need to sit a short assessment. Results from this assessment will be used to determine which course will suit your learning needs. New Start students are not eligible for Studylink funding. If you're experiencing financial hardship, please apply for a New Start award.

New Start is offered at the City, South Auckland and Tai Tokerau campuses.

Māori student support

From enrolment to graduation, our Māori support network provides guidance, connection, and kaupapa Māori initiatives to help you thrive.

He Āhuru Mōwai – Māori Student Support Centre

He Āhuru Mōwai, the Māori Student Support Centre is a dedicated space that nurtures the wellbeing, identity, and success of taura Māori at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland. Our centre is a home away from home where taura Māori can feel valued, connected, and supported in their personal, cultural, and academic development.

Located on Level 2 of the Kate Edgar Information Commons, He Āhuru Mōwai is a warm and welcoming space where taura can study, eat, hui, relax and connect with one another. More than just a study space, it is a whare of connection and support where taura can feel a sense of belonging and community.

Our kaupapa matua at He Āhuru Mōwai is to be a central point of coordination for taura Māori focused services and support across Waipapa Taumata Rau. Our Pouāwhina Māori provide guidance and can help taura navigate their studies and the wider university services available to them.

Health and Wellbeing

Disability Services

Ratonga Hauātanga Taura, Student Disability Services provide support tailored to your needs. This includes advice and advocacy, study and learning adjustments, and help with digital and physical access to the University. We also have a range of resources available to students in our dedicated study spaces. Go online for more information and contact us early so we can best help you.

auckland.ac.nz/disability

Inclusive Learning

If you are neurodivergent or have a specific learning disability, we can enhance your academic development. We provide tailored support for your learning needs or may refer you to other support services.

auckland.ac.nz/inclusive-learning

Health and Counselling

University Health and Counselling (UHCS) offer primary health services across multiple campuses. They have experienced

General Practitioners (GPs), nurses, counsellors and psychologists, all of whom are committed to providing a quality healthcare service. We have staff who offer a range of services within the spirit of whanaungatanga. You can enrol to get assistance with physical health (including sexual health), mental health, immunisation, and much more.

auckland.ac.nz/studenthealth

Te Papa Manaaki, Campus Care

We offer a safe confidential and free service that supports the wellbeing and safety of everyone at the University. The team works with students to better understand their concerns and needs, therefore helping to streamline interactions with campus services. We develop a tailored plan that works in the best interests of everyone.

Students are assigned a single case manager who connects them with internal and external services that can support their needs. Students can be referred by others or reach out directly to seek advice.

Social and cultural support

From enrolment to graduation, our Māori support network provides guidance, connection, and kaupapa Māori initiatives to help you thrive.

Māori Student Associations

Māori student associations at Waipapa Taumata Rau provide spaces for connection, advocacy, and cultural expression. They host events, support kaupapa Māori initiatives, and help tauira Māori feel grounded and empowered throughout their university journey.

Ngā Tauira Māori – Māori Student's Association (NTM)

We uplift and support Māori students in endeavouring towards all the pathways they aspire to. We seek to preserve and develop the use of tikanga and Te Reo Māori within the University and the tauira. We strive to support Māori students in their formal education, as well as in developing an awareness and understanding of their surrounding world. We aim to inspire our tauira to influence their environments through an understanding of who they are as tangata whenua.

Academic support

Tuākana

Tuākana is an indigenous Māori and Pacific philosophy of care that is grounded and informed by Māori kaupapa and Pacific ways of being and knowing. Tuākana is founded on the whakatauki 'mā te tuakana e tōtika te teina, mā te teina e tōtika te tuakana'. The concept is also shared in the Pacific region such as Tahiti, Fiji and Niue.

All faculties offer Tuākana programmes for students across all its disciplines and offer:

- Study support: tutorials, workshops, wānanga, exam preparation and academic skill development.
- Manaakitanga of taura through developing and maintaining relationships
- Community and whanaungatanga
- University navigation and connection to other services
- Study spaces with resources that act as safe spaces for taura
- Employment, training and development opportunities

Leadership Through Learning

Leadership Through Learning is a free 12-week leadership and development programme for our Māori and Pacific students at the University of Auckland, across all levels of studies, faculties, disciplines and campuses. The programme offers a cultural space, where we build a community of student leaders seeking to lead, empower and transform.

auckland.ac.nz/leadershipthroughlearning

ReoSpace

ReoSpace is a safe, welcoming, inclusive space, where te Reo is centred as the primary language of communication. ReoSpace is open to all kaimahi (staff), tauira (students), and manuhiri (guests/visitors) from outside of Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland. You can be an absolute beginner through to a fluent speaker.

Māori and Pacific Admission Scheme (MAPAS)

MAPAS is a long-standing programme at the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences. It provides admission, academic and pastoral support for Māori and Indigenous Pacific students within the faculty. This scheme is an integral part of a faculty initiative aimed at increasing the number of Māori and Pacific professionals in the health workforce. Applicants with New Zealand Māori and/or indigenous Pacific ancestry can also apply through MAPAS to enter the Hikitia Te Ora – Certificate in Health Sciences programme.

Te Whakapōtaetanga o Waipapa Taumata Rau

Tauira Māori can celebrate their achievements at Māori Graduation – a special ceremony held at Waipapa Marae that honours you, your wider whānau, and all those who supported you along the way.

Kōkiri Raumati, Summer School – Get a head start!

Make the transition to university with confidence. Beginning in January 2027, these programmes are a great way to prepare for your first semester at university.

We have a large number of scholarships available to students taking part in the Summer Start, Tōia ki Waipapa and UniBound programmes beginning in January 2027.

Tōia ki Waipapa

Tōia ki Waipapa is a six-week summer programme designed to support taurā Māori as they transition into university life. You'll gain early access to campus, build connections, and experience culturally grounded learning that sets you up for success.

Taurā in Tōia enrol in a summer school course (MĀORI 130), which counts towards your degree. Alongside your studies, you'll be part of a vibrant programme that includes:

- Whanaungatanga – Build your university whānau from day one
- On- and off-campus activities – Explore, connect, and have fun
- Academic and pastoral workshops – Get the tools to thrive
- Peer mentoring – Learn from those who've walked the path
- AT HOP card – Free travel around Tāmaki Makaurau for the summer
- Free gym membership – Enjoy our new recreation centre

Tōia ki Waipapa is your chance to get ahead, connect with your people, and step confidently into university life — all while earning points toward your degree.

Kōkiri Raumati Scholarships

Applications for the University of Auckland Kōkiri Raumati Scholarships are usually open from early-August to mid-November in the year before you intend to join us. The dates vary from year to year.

These scholarships are available to students taking part in any of the Kōkiri Raumati, Summer Programmes and may be able to support with accommodation and fees.

For the most up-to-date information about our Kōkiri Raumati Scholarships, please refer to its dedicated scholarship page.

This programme not only solidified lifelong relationships and provided continuous support that I still feel five years later, but it also gave me a realistic understanding of what university life looks like.

“It prepared me for the academic year ahead, helping me gain successful admission into Law School, and, most importantly, created a space where I could belong as a Māori student.

“During that summer, I had the opportunity to explore my ‘why’ and my ‘purpose’ while taking one of my favourite classes, Māori 130. This course reinforced my passion for advocating for marginalised communities, especially Māori and Pasifika communities, who played a significant role in shaping me. Five years ago, I was nervously waiting at the South Mall train station for my first day with the programme. Today, I am writing this from South Mumbai, India, during a six-week internship advocating for marginalised communities.”

During my studies, I embraced every opportunity to grow, from building my skills to contributing to my community. These experiences gave me confidence and prepared me for the career I have today.

“Now, as a second-year teacher, I am passionate about creating opportunities for others, uplifting young Māori, and inspiring the next generation to embrace their potential. Looking to the future, I’m excited to continue making a difference in education and to remain connected with the networks and people who have supported me.”
