

Young Scholars Programme

Application Guide

Required documentation

To apply for this programme, you will need to provide the following documentation:

- Discretionary Entrance form (signed by your Principal)
- Letter of support/reference from your school.
- Certified proof of your identity

In order to verify your legal name, date of birth and citizenship status, please send in certified photocopies of your identification documents such as your birth certificate or relevant pages of your passport. You can send a certified photocopy of these via post. Alternatively, if you are on our campus and able to, you can drop in to AskAuckland Central with the original documents and they can photocopy and certify these for you. For more information, please see Certifying copies of documents for Admission. Please note, providing proof of identity will not affect or delay the processing of your application, so we advise that you provide this once your application has been approved and you have been accepted into the programme. You do need to have provided your ID before you can enrol.*

Once your application has been processed, you will be informed by email confirming the outcome of your application.

Please note that delays in processing your application may occur during peak admission periods (December through to March). Hence, we encourage you to apply as early as possible.

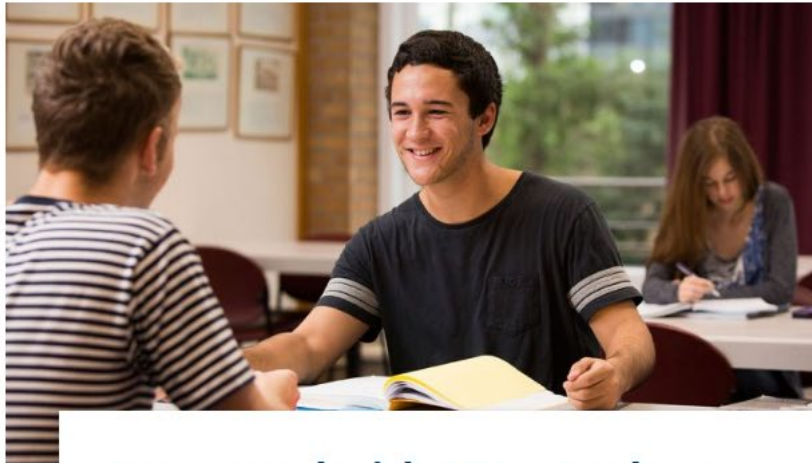

To start your application, click 'Apply for Admission to study' at the top of the University of Auckland homepage.

The image shows the University of Auckland login and registration page. The background features a photograph of the University's clock tower. In the top left corner, there is a blue box containing the University of Auckland logo and name: "UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND Waipapa Taumata Rau NEW ZEALAND". The main heading is "The University of Auckland". Below this, there are two input fields: "Email or University username" and "Password". A blue "Sign in" button with a right arrow is positioned below the password field. Below the button is a link that says "I've forgotten my password". Further down, it says "Or sign in with one of the following services" and lists four options: RealMe, LinkedIn, Facebook, and Google. At the bottom, there is a section titled "New to the University?" with the text "Registering for an account is the first step in applying to study or work at the University of Auckland". Below this text is a white button with the text "Register for a new account" and a right arrow. Two red arrows point from the instructional text on the left to the login and registration sections of the page.

The Young Scholars Programme gives academically-exceptional Year 13 students the opportunity to sample University life with a range of specially selected Stage 1 courses. Applicants who gain entry to this programme may enrol in one 15-point course in Semester One. Applicants are expected to have discussed this study with their High School prior to applying.

 You have reached the maximum number of majors/specialisations you can apply for.

You will be prompted to select a start term. Please select Semester One of the relevant year.

The screenshot shows the University of Auckland application form. At the top is the university's logo. Below it is a progress bar with five steps; the third step, labeled '3', is active. The main section is titled 'Programme' and asks 'Which programme are you applying for?'. It lists 'Certificate of Proficiency' and 'First Major/Specialisation: Young Scholars Programme'. A modal window titled 'Select term' is open, showing a radio button selected for '2022 Semester One'. The modal has 'CANCEL' and 'OK' buttons. Below the modal, there is a 'Select term' dropdown menu. At the bottom of the form are 'Next >' and 'Save and exit' buttons.
