Description

This Prize was established in 1985 by the Auckland University Singers upon their dissolution as an incorporated society. In establishing the Prize the Singers record their appreciation of the musicianship and enthusiasm of the Choir's founder, Professor Peter Godfrey, the financial contributions encouraged by the late Rolf Porter and the Patron, the late Sir Henry Cooper, and also the work of the senior foundation committee members, Margery Charlton, Marin Segedin and Bernard Swedlund. The Choir twice represented New Zealand in visits overseas.

The main purpose of the prize is to assist with further performance and study of Choral Music.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Auckland University Singers' Choral Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be $2,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to a full-time student in a Bachelor of Music (BMus) or BMus conjoint degree who has achieved outstanding results in choral studies and who has made an outstanding contribution to the choral programme.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Music (or nominee).
