Description

The Scholarship was established in 2021 and is funded by an endowment by Brookfields Lawyers of Auckland.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to assist a student entering Part II of a Bachelor of Laws who is the first member of their family to attend university, and who, because of financial hardship, may not otherwise be able to undertake a university degree.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the Brookfields Lawyers First in Family Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually, for a period of up to one year, and will be of the value $4,000.
3. To be eligible for consideration for the Scholarship, an applicant must be i) a New Zealand Citizen or Permanent Resident (see Note II), ii) the first member of their family to attend university (see Note III) and, iii) enrolled, or enrolling, full-time in Part II of a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) or LLB conjoint degree at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland. A grade point average (GPA) of 5.00 (4.50 for Māori or Pacific candidates) is required for Scholarship consideration.
4. The basis of selection will be academic achievement based on results in Part I of the LLB, the applicant's motivation to succeed at university and demonstrated financial hardship as assessed by a personal statement and the criteria at Note IV.
5. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee), a member of academic staff from the Faculty of Law nominated by the Dean, and a representative of Brookfields Lawyers.
6. The Scholarship will be paid in one instalment in Semester Two, as soon as is practical after confirmation of the awardee's enrolment (that is, after the final date on which a student may add or delete courses without incurring a late enrolment fee).

7. To be paid the Scholarship, the awardee must be enrolled full-time in Part II of an LLB or LLB conjoint degree.
8. The Scholarship may be held with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.
9. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
10. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and/or to assist the awardee with living costs while studying (see Note I). Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Scholarship.
11. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the donor, can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
12. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 7 March in the year of the award.
13. Notes [I]-[V] below are deemed to be Regulations.

Notes

- I. The tax-free status of this Scholarship is under current legislation. The University of Auckland cannot guarantee this tax-free outcome.*
- II. New Zealand Permanent Residents have been granted a Permanent Resident Visa by Immigration New Zealand. For more information visit <https://www.immigration.govt.nz/new-zealand-visas/already-have-a-visa/becoming-a-permanent-resident>.*
- III. For the purpose of this scholarship, 'first in family' means that no member of the applicant's immediate family, including parents and siblings, has completed a university qualification prior to the applicant's first year of study. Adoptive and step parents and siblings are considered part of the family where they have lived with the applicant for the previous five or more years.*
- IV. Financial need will be determined by a range of factors including eligibility for a StudyLink Student Allowance, and personal and financial circumstances.*
- V. Awardees will be required to comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and must notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that an awardee is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Scholarship and require repayment of the funds received.*
