Description

The Prize was established in 1971 to commemorate the late Christine Robyn Roigard, an outstanding undergraduate who was, at the time of her sudden death, in the final year of her BA programme in German and Slavonic Studies. Subscriptions were given by relatives, friends, by the Diocesan School for Girls, and by the staff and students of the former Department of German and Slavonic Studies.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Christine Roigard Memorial Prize.
2. The Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student who in the opinion of the examiners has done the best work in German at Stage II level. As a minimum standard, the student should have a GPA of 7.00 across all courses in German.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leader for European Studies (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit. The Prize may not be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
