The Scholarship was established in 2020 and is funded by DELNA (Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment).

The intention of the Scholarship is to encourage and support academically excellent domestic and international students with their doctoral study on a topic in language assessment which is relevant to DELNA at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the DELNA PhD Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually, for a period of up to one year and will be of the value of up to $10,000. Awardees may reapply for the Scholarship in subsequent years.
3. To be eligible for Scholarship consideration, an applicant must be i) enrolled full-time in a PhD at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland, and ii) undertaking a topic in language assessment which is relevant to DELNA (see Note II).
4. The Scholarship is tenable by domestic and international students.
5. The basis of selection will be academic merit and the quality and nature of the research. Matters that may be considered in relation to academic merit include, but are not limited to, academic record, standing of awarding institution, academic references, CV, research and publication record.
6. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Academic Head of DELNA (or nominee), the Academic Advisor of DELNA (or nominee) and the DELNA Manager (or nominee).
7. The Scholarship will be paid as a fortnightly stipend.

8. The Scholarship may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.
9. Awardees will be required to provide a progress report to the Academic Advisor of DELNA at the end of the first six months of the Scholarship, and provide an end-of-year report at the end of the Scholarship tenure.
10. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
11. The University of Auckland Council has the power to terminate or suspend a Scholarship if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress by a Scholar from the Academic Advisor of DELNA.
12. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Academic Advisor of DELNA, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
13. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on TBC.
14. Notes [I] – [V] below are deemed to be Regulations.

Notes

- I. The tax-free status of this Scholarship is under current legislation. The University of Auckland cannot guarantee this tax-free outcome.*
- II. PhD candidates undertaking research in language assessment or related area may contact the DELNA office (email delna@auckland.ac.nz) to discuss their application before applying.*
- III. In making a recommendation for this Scholarship the Selection Committee shall take into account other scholarships, bursaries and awards held by the candidates, with a view to achieving a fair distribution of monies among qualifying candidates.*
- IV. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and/or to assist the awardee with living costs while studying. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Scholarship.*
- V. Awardees will be required to comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and must notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland may, in the event it can be established that an awardee is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Scholarship and require repayment of the funds received from the date of the breach.*
