Description

The Award was established in 2023 and is funded by the Goodfellow Foundation to commemorate the late Dr Bruce Goodfellow, former Chairman of the Goodfellow Foundation, who wished to inspire younger general practitioners and trainees to see the pleasure and value in further academic study in primary care.

The intention of the Award is to encourage and support primary care clinicians (General Practitioners, registrars, nurse practitioners, primary care nurses, palliative care nurses and doctors) to undertake postgraduate study in the School of Population Health at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Award will be known as the Dr Bruce Goodfellow Postgraduate Award.
2. Awards will be made twice a year and will cover the cost of compulsory fees (see Note I) for enrolment in one or more of the postgraduate courses/papers in Population Health, Clinical Education and Paediatrics specified in Note II. The value of an individual Award will be determined by the cost of the postgraduate course/paper(s) the awardee is enrolled in. Awardees may reapply in subsequent years.
3. To be eligible for Award consideration, an applicant must i) be a New Zealand Citizen or Permanent Resident (see Note II), ii) hold current registration to practice as a Nurse Practitioner or Primary Care Nurse, Palliative Care Nurse or Doctor, General Practitioner or registrar with the Medical Council, iii) be enrolled, or enrolling, in one or more of the courses/papers listed in Note III, and iv) be either working, or planning to return to work, in Primary Care or Palliative Care.
4. The basis of selection will be academic achievement as assessed by the GPA/GPE calculated over the most recent qualifying programme (see Note II) and the applicant's study and career aspirations, including leadership roles in the health sector, as assessed by a personal statement. The following criteria may inform selection: i) recruitment to specific programmes of study or courses/papers, ii) applicant interest in mental health and/or palliative care related courses/papers, and iii) providing accessible lifelong higher education opportunities.

5. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Head of the School of Population Health (or nominee), the Head of the Department of General Practice and Primary Health Care (or nominee) and an additional academic staff member from the Department of General Practice and Primary Health Care nominated by the Head of the Department.
6. Payment will be made as a compulsory fees credit for those course/papers(s) specified at Note III in which the student has enrolled in each semester of enrolment (see Note I).
7. To be paid the Award, awardees must be i) enrolled in one or more of the courses/papers listed in Note III.
8. The Award may not be held concurrently with any other tuition fee-paying scholarship, bursary scheme or equivalent funded by Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland (including those funded by faculties and LSRI and URCs). However, it may be held with any other scholarship, award or grant where the Regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and where the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Award.
9. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
10. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the donor, has the power to terminate or suspend an Award if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress by a Scholar from the Head of the School of Population Health.
11. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.
12. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 5 February and 10 July in the year of the award.
13. Notes [I] – [VII] below are deemed to be Regulations.

Notes
