Description

This Prize was established by Dr R G McElroy, a former Pro-Chancellor of the University of Auckland, to encourage the study of Administrative Law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Dr R G McElroy Prize in Administrative Law.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $1,000.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the student who achieved the highest mark in LAWPUBL 414 Administrative Law or an equivalent course in Administrative Law. As a minimum standard, the student must have achieved at least an A-grade.
4. In the event that LAWPUBL 414 or an alternative course in Administrative Law is not taught, the Prize may be awarded to the student who achieved the highest mark in LAWPUBL 426 Judicial Review, or another Part IV Law Public course nominated by the Dean of the Faculty of Law.
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee) shall determine if the Prize may be shared.
8. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
