Description

The Award was established in 1967 by the Management Committee of the Elam Trust for Art and Design established under the Will of Dr J.E. Elam.

The main purpose of the Award is to provide financial assistance to students during the final year of the Bachelor of Fine Arts.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Award will be known as the Elam Art Award.
2. One Award will be made annually and will be of the value of $1,000.
3. To be eligible for Award consideration, a candidate must be enrolled in Year Three of a Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA).
4. The Award will be made to the student who achieved the highest marks across Year Two Studio courses in the preceding year.
5. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Elam School of Fine Arts (or nominee).
6. The Award will be paid in one instalment in Semester One, as soon as is practical after confirmation of the awardee's enrolment (that is, after the final date on which a student may add or delete courses without incurring a late enrolment fee).
7. To be paid the Award, the awardee must be enrolled full-time or part-time in Year Three of the BFA.
8. The Award may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Award.

9. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
10. Payments under the terms of this Award remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and/or to assist the awardee with living costs while studying (see Note I). Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Award.
11. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.
12. Notes [I]-[II] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. The tax-free status of this Award is under current legislation. The University of Auckland cannot guarantee this tax-free outcome.*
- II. Awardees will be required to comply with the regulations for the Award and must notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that an awardee is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Award and require repayment of the funds received.*
