Description

The Prize, which was first offered in 1978, is provided from funds donated by the beneficiaries of the will of Sophia Ruth de la Mare, in memory of her late husband, Frederick Archibald de la Mare. He was a graduate (BA, LLB) of the University of New Zealand, practised as a solicitor in Hamilton from 1910 to 1948, and represented Convocation as a member of the New Zealand University Senate from 1919 to 1947.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the F A de la Mare Memorial Prize.
2. The value of the Prize will be $250.
3. The Prize will be awarded each year to the student in the Faculty of Law who has completed in the year of the award the requirements of Part III of the Bachelor of Laws (LLB) with the highest aggregate marks over LAW 301 Land Law, LAW 306 Equity, LAW 316 Jurisprudence, and three Part III elective courses. As a minimum standard, the student should have achieved a GPA of 7.00 (equivalent to an A- average) over those courses.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland is not obliged to award the Prize in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
