Description

The Scholarships were founded in 1954 by Mr A G Fogerty as a memorial to his son Flying-Officer Alfred P Fogerty who was killed in World War II and had graduated as Master of Commerce at Auckland in 1939.

The purpose of the Scholarships is to assist students to pursue to best advantage the study of Economics.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Scholarships are awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Economics.

Regulations

1. The Scholarships will be known as the Flying Officer Alfred P Fogerty Memorial Scholarships.
2. Two Scholarships may be awarded annually, each of the value of $900.
3. The Scholarships will be awarded to students with demonstrated potential in the study of Economics and are enrolled and have paid the fees, or arranged to pay the fees, for Stage III courses or an Honours programme in Economics at the University of Auckland.
4. The Scholarships will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Economics.
5. If candidates are deemed of equal merit, either one or both of the Scholarships may be shared.
6. If there is no candidate of sufficient merit for either one or both of the Scholarships in any one year, the University of Auckland Council will not be bound to make the award or awards.
7. The emoluments will be paid in two equal instalments at the end of each semester provided that payment may be suspended, or a Scholarship cancelled, if an unfavourable report on the conduct or progress of a Scholar is received from the Head of the Department of Economics.
8. The University of Auckland Council may, on the recommendation of the Senate, vary the conditions of the Scholarship from time to time or use the moneys available in any way that will best serve the purpose for which the Scholarship was founded.
