Description

The Prize was established in 1987 by the Auckland Goethe Society in recognition of the long and successful tradition of medieval German studies at the University of Auckland and in the conviction that such studies should be actively encouraged and promoted.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Goethe Society Prize in German Studies.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $500.
3. The Prize will be expended in the purchase of works relating to German Studies.
4. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student who, in the opinion of the examiners has done the best work in German at Stage III level. As a minimum standard, the student should have a GPA of 7.00 across all courses in German. In the event of a tie, consideration may be given to whether a student is progressing to Honours level study in German or in Languages and Literatures with German as one language in a subsequent year.
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leader for European Studies (or nominee).
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
8. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
