Description

The Scholarship was established in 2013 and is funded by JLL a leading specialist firm of real estate services.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to encourage and reward excellence in the study of property, property management and valuation and to support those seeking to complete a degree directly associated with the property industry.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the JLL Scholarship.
2. One Scholarship will be awarded annually, for a period of up to one year, and will be of the value of up to $5,000.
3. To be eligible for Scholarship consideration, applicants must be enrolled full-time in Year 2 of a Bachelor of Property (BProp) or associated conjoint degree in the Department of Property at the University of Auckland. A grade point average (GPA) or grade point equivalent (GPE) of at least 4.00 is required for Scholarship consideration (see Note II).
4. The Scholarship is tenable by domestic or international students.
5. The basis of selection will be academic achievement as assessed by the academic results achieved in Year 1 for the BProp or associated conjoint degree (see Note II), and the applicant's communication and interpersonal skills, community involvement and potential to succeed in the property profession as assessed by a personal statement.
6. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Dean of the Faculty of Business & Economics (or nominee), the Head of the Department of Property (or nominee) and one representative of JLL.
7. To be paid the Scholarship, the awardee must be enrolled in a Year 2 of a BProp or associated conjoint degree.

Conjoint students must be enrolled in Year 2 level BProp courses to be paid the Scholarship.

8. The Scholarship will be paid in two equal lump sums in Semester One and Two, as soon as is practical after confirmation of the awardee's enrolment (that is, after the final date on which a student may add or delete courses without incurring a late enrolment fee).
9. The Scholarship may be held concurrently with any other scholarship, award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.
10. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the Donor, has the power to terminate or suspend a Scholarship if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress of a Scholar from the Head of the Department of Property.
11. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
12. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
13. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 14 March in the year of the award.
14. Notes [I]-[IV] below are deemed to be regulations.

Notes

- I. Recipients of the JLL Scholarship may be offered the opportunity for work experience during one or more semester breaks.*
- II. The GPA/GPE will be based on all courses undertaken in each semester of study.*
- III. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and to assist the awardee with living costs while studying. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Scholarship.*
- IV. Awardees will be required to comply with the regulations for the Scholarship and must notify the Scholarships Office of any change in their enrolment or funding status. The University of Auckland may, in the event that it can be established that an awardee is not complying with these regulations, terminate the Scholarship and require repayment of the funds received from the date of the breach.*
