Description

The Johnston Foundation Prize in Company Law were established in 2015 by Derek and Susan Johnston.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the students achieving the best grades in LAWCOMM 464 Company Law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Johnston Foundation Prize in Company Law.
2. Two Prizes will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $1,000 each.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the student who achieved the highest marks in LAWCOMM 464 Company Law. One Prize will be awarded in Semester One and the other in Semester Two. As a minimum standard, the student must have achieved at least an A- grade.
4. In the event that LAWCOMM 464 is not offered in both Semester One and Semester Two of any given year, one Prize of $2,000 may be awarded to the student who achieved the highest marks in the applicable semester that LAWCOMM 464 is offered.
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
6. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee) shall determine if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
8. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
