Description

The Jonathan McKeown-Green Prize in Philosophy was established in 2016 in memory of Jonathan who was an inspirational, committed and dedicated philosophy educator.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the top Stage III Bachelor of Arts student majoring in Philosophy.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Jonathan McKeown-Green Prize in Philosophy.
2. The annual value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the Bachelor of Arts student who has completed a major in Philosophy and has achieved the best overall result (measured by GPA), based on his or her Stage II and Stage III Philosophy papers. As a minimum standard, the student should have achieved a GPA of at least 7.00 (equivalent to an A- average).
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) in consultation with the Discipline Convenor of Philosophy.
5. The Prize may not be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
