The Award is intended for students studying full-time towards a qualification; however, the Trustees recognise that health conditions or impairments can limit a person's ability to study full-time and have extended the Award in 2023 to include part-time study on a case-by-case basis.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Kate Edger Foundation assesses the applications
- The Awards are made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Kate Edger Foundation

Regulations

1. The Award shall be known as the Kate Edger Foundation - Bachelor with Honours Award.
2. Up to five Awards will be made annually, each for a period of one year, and will be of the value of up to $8,000 each. Part-time students will be paid pro-rata

To be eligible for Award consideration, an applicant must be i) a woman, ii) a New Zealand Citizen or Permanent Resident (see Note II), iii) enrolled, or enrolling, full-time in either the final year of an undergraduate Bachelor (Honours) degree or in a postgraduate Bachelor (Honours) degree at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland. Applications from students studying part-time must include documentation supporting their reasons for studying part-time (see Notes III and VIII).

6. The Award will be paid in two equal instalments, in Semester One and Two, as soon as is practical after confirmation of the awardee's enrolment (that is, after the final date on which a student may add or delete courses without incurring a late enrolment fee). However, it may be held with any scholarship, other award or grant as long as the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and the University of Auckland Council and the Kate Edger Foundation are informed and approve. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Award.
