Description

The Michael and Dame Rosie Horton Prize was established in 2014 by Michael and Dame Rosie Horton to remember the journalist and writer, Marcia Russell.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the best work submitted by a Bachelor of Arts student studying New Zealand literature.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Michael and Dame Rosie Horton Prize.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $1,250.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually for the best work submitted for Stage II or Stage III courses in New Zealand Literature or work submitted on a New Zealand topic for another course in English by a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Arts conjoint student. As a minimum standard, the student must have received an A- grade.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leader of English.
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. In the event of a tie, the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) will determine if the Prize may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
