Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the New Zealand Law Review Prize.
2. Three Prizes will be awarded annually and will comprise subscriptions to the New Zealand Law Review for a period of three years.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the three students who have completed in the year of the award the requirements of Part II of the Bachelor of Laws (LLB) with the highest aggregate marks over LAW 121(G) Law and Society, LAW 131 Legal Method, LAW 141 Legal Foundations and the five courses of Part II. As a minimum standard, the students should have achieved a GPA of 7.00 (equivalent to an A- average) over those courses.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to make an award in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
