Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Noni Wright Prize in Media and Screen Studies.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student enrolled in the first year of a Bachelor of Arts, majoring/specialising in Media and Screen Studies, who has displayed the best overall academic performance in both MEDIA 101 Film Studies and MEDIA 102 Media and Culture. As a minimum standard, the student must have achieved at least an A-grade in each course. In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the student who has demonstrated the greatest commitment to the study of Media and Screen Studies as assessed by the student's contribution and engagement in classwork.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee), in consultation with the Major/Specialisation Leader for Media and Screen Studies (or nominee).
5. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
