Description

The prize was established in 2008 and is financed by a donation from the family of the late Richard Paul Anschutz, who was Professor of Philosophy from 1956-1961. In 2019 a generous donation from David Aro, grandson of Richard Anschutz, endowed the prize in his grandfather's memory.

The purpose of the Prize is to encourage study in political philosophy at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Richard Anschutz Prize for Stage I Ethics and Political Philosophy.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the student who achieves the highest mark in Stage I Ethics and Philosophy courses. As a minimum standard the student must have achieved an A- grade. In the event of a tie, the Prize will be awarded to the student who achieved the highest mark in the examination.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee) in consultation with the Discipline Convenor of Philosophy.
5. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to make an award in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
6. The Prize may not be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
