Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Roland Marleyn Prize in German Literature.
2. The value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will normally be expended in the purchase of works relating to German studies.
4. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student who, in the opinion of the examiners, has shown the greatest distinction in German literature at Stage III. The recipient will normally be expected to proceed to a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) or Master of Arts in German, or in Languages and Literature with German as one language, in a subsequent year. As a minimum standard, the student must have achieved a GPA of 7.00 (equivalent to an A-average).
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics (or nominee) in consultation with the Discipline Convenor of German.
6. The University of Auckland Council will not be bound to award the Prize in a particular year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. The Prize may not be shared.
8. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
