This Prize was established in 2018 and is funded by Simon Berry and the Li Ka Shing Foundation.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and encourage excellence in Privacy Law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Simon Berry Prize in Privacy Law
2. One Prize to the value of $1,000 will be awarded annually.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the full-time student achieving the highest mark in LAWPUBL 453 Privacy Law. In the event that LAWPUBL 453 Privacy Law is not offered in any year, the Prize shall be awarded to the student achieving the highest mark in LAWPUBL 759 Privacy at Common Law or an alternative course in Privacy Law nominated by the Faculty of Law. As a minimum standard, the student must have achieved at least an A- grade.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
5. In the event of a tie, the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee) will determine whether the Prize may be shared.
6. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if it is determined there is no candidate that meets the criteria and/or no candidate of sufficient merit.
7. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
