Description

The Stephen Coleman Memorial Prize was established in 2013 and is funded by Phil Warbrick of Synergine in memory of Stephen Coleman for his outstanding contribution to the Faculty of Engineering.

The main purpose of the Prize is to reward and recognise an academically able student enrolled in CIVIL 782.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

Regulations

1. The Prize shall be known as the Stephen Coleman Memorial Prize.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of up to $1,500.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the full-time student who achieved the highest marks in the Stage I and Stage II projects in CIVIL 782 Water Resources Engineering in a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) or masters degree in the Faculty of Engineering. As a minimum standard, the student should have achieved a mark of at least 80%.
4. The Prize is tenable by a domestic or international student.
5. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation the Head of the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering (or nominee), in consultation with the Donor (or nominee).
6. The Prize will be paid in one lump sum.
7. In the event of a tie, the Head of the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering will determine, in consultation with the Donor, if the Prize may be shared.
8. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
9. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the Donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.

10. Note [I] below is deemed to be a regulation.

Notes

I. The Prize recipient may be required to attend a Departmental prize-giving function in October.
