Tony Cotton Memorial Prize

Description

The Prize was established in 1976 in memory of the late Dr A N B Cotton, lecturer in History at the University of Auckland from 1972 to 1974. The Prize is funded by subscriptions from relatives, friends, colleagues and students.

The aim of the Prize is to stimulate study and research into European History, particularly seventeenth century British History or related fields.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Tony Cotton Memorial Prize.
2. Two Prizes will be awarded annually. The value of each Prize will be $250.
