Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Review Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Review Committee

Regulations

1. The Scholarship will be known as the University of Auckland Māori Academic Excellence Scholarship.
2. Up to 25 Scholarships will be awarded annually, each for the first three years of the scholar's undergraduate degree, or at the discretion of the Review Committee, for the Certificate of Health Sciences year plus the first two years of an undergraduate programme, and will be of the value of up to $25,000 each, comprising the cost of the first year of catered accommodation in a single room in a Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland Hall of Residence plus $5,000 paid in two lump sums in Semester One and Two each year (see Regulation 10 and Notes II to IV). The Scholarship will be recorded on the scholar's academic transcript.
3. To be eligible for Scholarship consideration, an applicant must be i) New Zealand Māori, ii) a New Zealand Citizen or Permanent Resident (see Note V), iii) currently enrolled in their final year of study at a New Zealand secondary school or kura (see Note VI), and iv) intending to enrol full-time in an undergraduate degree or a Certificate of Health Sciences followed by an undergraduate degree at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland in the following year (see Regulation 8). Applications may also be considered from students who have studied at least until the end of Year 11 at a New Zealand secondary school or kura and who, at the time of application, are studying overseas in either an NCEA, IB or CIE programme, or who have completed an NCEA, IB or CIE programme within the year of application.

4. The initial basis of selection will be excellent academic ability based on results of their previous year's study at Level 2 or higher in the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA) or an equivalent qualification. The following criteria may also inform selection: participation in Māori performing arts, cultural participation in Māori contexts, demonstrated leadership potential, achievement in academic, sports or arts competitions, participation in visual and performing arts, and recognition within the community. The personal circumstances of candidates will also be taken into consideration including financial need, the Equity Index number of the most recent secondary school or kura attended, if the applicant is the first in their whānau to attend university, if the applicant has a disability, if the applicant has care responsibilities for whānau, or if the applicant lives, or attends secondary school or kura, in a rural area (see Notes VII to XI).
5. The Scholarship will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Review Committee comprising four members of staff nominated by the Pro Vice-Chancellor Māori, of whom one must be Academic Staff. A Chair will be nominated by the Pro Vice-Chancellor Education. In addition, all awarding recommendations will be endorsed by the Entry Level Review Committee.
6. Applicants who have been offered a Scholarship must accept their offer by the date prescribed in the letter of award, otherwise the Scholarship offer will be forfeited.
7. To be paid the Scholarship, awardees must i) achieve admission to Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland with at least an NCEA rank score of 240, a CIE rank score of 300 or an IB score of 32; which are all equivalent to a Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland grade point equivalent (GPE) of 5.00, and ii) enrol full-time in an undergraduate degree or Certificate in Health Sciences (see Notes XII to XV).
8. Where an awardee who applied for an undergraduate degree programme has been directed by the University to enrol in a Tertiary Foundation Certificate or a Certificate in Health Sciences prior to enrolling in an undergraduate degree, their eligibility to hold the Scholarship will be considered on a case-by-case basis before the start date for their Scholarship.
9. The starting date for Scholarship funding will be Semester One or Semester Two, in accordance with the awardee's enrolment, in the year immediately following the final year of secondary school or kura study (see Notes XII to XIV).
10. The accommodation component of the Scholarship will be paid directly to the relevant Hall of Residence, and cannot be exchanged for a similar or cash value at any time. The $5,000 component will be paid in instalments in each year of tenure, as soon as is practical after confirmation of full-time enrolment (that is, after the final date on which a student may add or delete courses without incurring a late enrolment fee) (see Notes XII and XVI).
11. As a condition of tenure, awardees will be required i) to enrol full-time in a degree, or the Certificate of Health Sciences, followed by degree level study, at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland, and ii) maintain a passing grade in all courses in each semester of study (see Notes XII and XV to XIX).
12. A University of Auckland Māori Academic Excellence Scholarship may not be held concurrently with any other Scholarship funded by Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland (including faculties and Large Scale Research Institutes (LSRIs), or University Research Centres (URCs)), excluding a Summer Research Scholarship. However, it may be held with any other scholarship, award or grant where the regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and where the University of Auckland Council is informed and approves. It is the responsibility of the awardee to declare to the Scholarships Office all other scholarships, awards or grant funding received and for which the awardee receives payment while also in payment for this Scholarship.
13. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make the full number of awards if it is determined there are no candidates who meet the criteria and/or candidates of sufficient merit.
14. Payments under the terms of this Scholarship remain tax-free as long as they are used for the payment of costs associated with an awardee's programme of study and/or to assist the awardee with living costs while studying (see Note I). Failure to comply with this regulation will result in the termination of the Scholarship.

15. The University of Auckland Council can amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
16. Applications close with the Scholarships Office on 13 August in the year preceding the award.
17. Notes [I]-[XX] below are deemed to be regulations.
