Description

This Prize was established in 2017 and is funded by Dr Geoff Vincent, an alumnus of the University of Auckland now resident in Australia.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward the student who receives the highest GPA across two Stage III courses in Theological and Religious Studies.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities.

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Vincent Prize in Theological and Religious Studies.
2. The annual value of the Prize will be $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded to the full-time student who achieves the highest GPA across two or more Stage III courses in Theological and Religious Studies (see Note I).
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities (or nominee).
5. In the event of a tie, the Deputy Head (Academic) of the School of Humanities will determine whether the Prize may be shared. Both awardees will be awarded an amount equal to the original prize value.
6. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations, in consultation with the donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Prize.
7. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award if in any year there are no candidates of sufficient merit.
8. Note [I] below is deemed to be a Regulation.
