JOAN OLIVER HONOURS AWARD IN FRENCH CODE NO P102

REGULATIONS:

1. The Award will be known as the Joan Oliver Honours Award in French.
2. The Award will be of the value of up to $1,000.
3. One Award will be made annually to the most academically meritorious student undertaking an honours year in French, taking into account all previous French work examined in the qualifying degree programme (see Note i).
4. The award will be made to a student who is in the first semester of their honours year. If there is no candidate of sufficient merit, the Award may be held over until the following semester or year.
5. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Head of French (or nominee).
6. In the event of a tie, the Head of French shall determine if the Award may be shared.
7. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.

Note:

i) The Prize will be awarded annually in Semester One.

The Joan Oliver Honours Award in French was established in 2015 by an anonymous donor with an interest in French language and culture.

The main purpose of the Award is to recognise and encourage the most academically meritorious student enrolled in an honours year, majoring in French in the year of award.
