Description

This Prize was established in 2008 in memory of the late Regina (Gina) Rudland of the Ngati Porou iwi, a leading commercial and Māori issues lawyer and a graduate of the University of Auckland. It is financed from funds donated by Dr Yash Ghai, Robb Lecturer at the University of Auckland in 2007, and by legal colleagues and friends of Gina Rudland.

The main purpose of the Prize is to recognise and reward excellence in mooting on Māori issues at Waipapa Taumata Rau, University of Auckland. It will be awarded each year to the winner of the Māori Issues Moot in the Faculty of Law.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee)

Regulations

1. The Prize will be known as the Gina Rudland Memorial Prize for Māori Mooting.
2. One Prize will be awarded annually and will be of the value of $500.
3. The Prize will be awarded annually to the student judged to be the best mooter in the Māori Issues Moot in the Faculty of Law.
4. The Prize will be awarded by the University of Auckland Council upon the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law (or nominee).
