Description

The Jean Hamlin Memorial Scholarship was established in 2006 through a bequest from the late Jean Constance McCubeary.

The main purpose of the Scholarship is to provide assistance to a student who is undertaking studio or practical work in the visual arts, and who is enrolled in their final year of undergraduate study at the University of Auckland. Preference may be given to students who have demonstrated excellence in the visual arts involving animals and birds, according to the donor's wishes.

Selection process

- Application is made to the Scholarships Office
- A Selection Committee assesses the applications
- The Scholarship is awarded by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee
