Description

The Award was established in 2019 and is funded by the Sir Hugh Kawharu Foundation.

The intention of the Award is to encourage and support a Māori student to undertake a Postgraduate Diploma in Business in Māori Development at the University of Auckland.

Selection process

- Nomination is made to the Scholarships Office
- The Award is made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee

Regulations

1. The Award will be known as the Sir Hugh Kawharu Foundation PGDipBus Māori Development Award.
2. One Award will be made annually, for a period of up to two years and will be of the value of $2,500 per annum.
3. The Award may be made to students who meet all the requirements of these regulations and enrol in a Postgraduate Diploma in Business (PGDipBus) in Māori Development at the University of Auckland.
4. The Award is tenable by Māori students who are citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
5. The basis of selection will be academic ability and the candidate's leadership potential and suitability for the programme (see Note I).
6. The Award will be made by the University of Auckland Council on the recommendation of a Selection Committee comprising the Academic Director of the PGDipBus in Māori Development programme (or nominee) and two representatives of the Sir Hugh Kawharu Foundation.
7. The University of Auckland Council is not obliged to make an award in any year if there is no candidate of sufficient merit.
8. Payment will be made in a lump sum in each year of the programme. The second instalment is subject to successful completion of all of the Year One courses and the recommendation of the Academic Director.

9. The Sir Hugh Kawharu Foundation PGDipBus Māori Development Award may be held with any other scholarship, award or grant where the Regulations for that scholarship, award or grant permit and where the University of Auckland Council so approves.
10. The University of Auckland Council, in consultation with the donor, has the power to terminate or suspend an Award if it receives a report of unsatisfactory progress of a Scholar from the Associate Dean (Postgraduate) of the Faculty of Business and Economics
11. The University of Auckland Council has the power to amend or vary these Regulations, in consultation with the donor, provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Award.
12. Notes [I] – [II] below are deemed to be Regulations.

Notes
