The University of Auckland is committed to being safe, inclusive and equitable, and we have zero tolerance for discrimination. Student Disability Services provides support for students with a wide range of impairments, both visible and invisible, including:

- Blind and low vision
- Deaf and hearing-impaired
- Head injury
- Medical conditions
- Mental health conditions
- Physical or mobility impairments
- Speech impairments
- Temporary impairments
- Specific learning disabilities

Student Disability Services team

If you live with an impairment that impacts your studies, or if you had special conditions for exams at school, contact us for a confidential chat about how we may be able to help you succeed at the University.

Student Disability Services offers a broad range of services, including:

- Special conditions for tests and exams
- Note-taking, including support for Deaf students
- Learning disability referrals
- Resources, including designated study rooms, temporary mobility scooters and accessible parking
- Careers and disability scholarship advice
- Mental health support*

**Our Mental Health Advisers provide ongoing support for students living with a diagnosed mental health condition. They work with students throughout their studies on a regular or intermittent basis to assess any challenges and difficulties that are affecting their academic progress.*
