In carrying out their role as a Kiwi Alumni Board Member, all members are expected to adhere to the following Charter of Values. These values ensure that the Board is a professional, safe and fun environment, where individuals are respected and valued.

PROFESSIONALISM

Board members should act in a responsible and professional manner, carrying out their duties to the best of their ability.

RESPECT

Board members should carry out their duties with respect. This includes respecting the diversity of members' race, gender, sexual orientation and religion, and ensuring that the Board is a safe environment to work.

INTEGRITY

Board members should carry out their duties with integrity and honesty, owning up to mistakes and being accountable for the use of alumni funds. The Board needs to uphold its promises to donors and stakeholders.

TEAMWORK

Kiwi Alumni cannot function without all members providing support to each other. Board members agree to work as a team, not for individual gain, and to support each other to make the Board a fun and enjoyable environment.
