

UoA programmes for public service interpreter training

Minako O'Hagan Associate Professor in Translation Studies Subject Leader and PG Advisor for Translation Studies School of Cultures, Languages and Linguistics minako.ohagan@auckland.ac.nz

1

(Source: https://www.mbie.govt.nz/cross-government-functions/language-assistance-services/new-standards-and-certification-requirements/)

Postgraduate Diploma in Translation Studies (120 points)

- NAATI endorsed for CPI (with Translat 101) and CPT
- Provides essential building blocks for the theory and practice of translation
- Four 30-point courses to complete in full-time (two semesters) or part-time (four semesters)
- Can start in either Sem 1 or Sem 2
- Points can be re-assigned to upgrade to the Master of Translation

Master of Translation (180 points)

- NAATI endorsed for CPI (with Translat 101), CPT and CAT
- A professionally-oriented, technology-focused masters degree to be completed in three semesters (if full-time)
- Six 30-point courses to complete
- Must start in Sem 1

					T713 and T101
	Semester 1 (Y1)	Translat 719 (Theory)	Translat 713 (Community T&I)	M	eligible for the MBIE support package
	Semester 2 (Y1)	Translat 7 (Trans Practice)	Translat 712 (CAT)	÷	Translat 101 (Interpreting for communities)
	Semester 1 (Y2)	Translat 720 (Portfolio)	Translat 700 (Digital Trans)

Translat 101: Interpreting for Communities (online) 15 points

Course outline:

https://courseoutline.auckland.ac.nz/dco/course/TRANSLAT/101 /1223

- Language-neutral
- Aims to build the fundamental knowledge and skills required to work as a community interpreter with future scope to advance to higher-level interpreting;
- Includes the role of interpreters in different communicative settings, intercultural communication, ethical decision making, modes of interpreting and the use of technologies;
- Trains for short-term memory, active listening, public speaking, note-taking, sight translation, splitting of attention, anticipation and coping tactics.

Translat 713: Community T&I (online/offline) 30 points

Course outline

https://courseoutline.auckland.ac.nz/dco/courses/79659

- Language-neutral
- Equips learners with translation and interpreting skills and knowledge needed to communicate public service information to multilingual and multicultural communities;
- Provides training on terminology, notetaking and memory management;
- Addresses ethics and community management;
- Raises learners' awareness of wider social roles played by translators and interpreters.

Translation Studies Programmes

Our website

https://www.auckland.ac.nz/en/study/study-options/find-astudy-option/translation-studies/postgraduate.html

Contact for further information

Dr. Minako O'Hagan (Translation Studies Subject Leader) email:minako.ohagan@auckland.ac.nz