

THE UNIVERSITY OF
AUCKLAND
Te Whare Wānanga o Tāmaki Makaurau
NEW ZEALAND

BUSINESS SCHOOL

Master of Property Practice (MPropPrac)

Advance your skills, knowledge and understanding of property management, development and valuation and transform your practice in property and related fields.

Quick facts

Programme type: Postgraduate

Points: 180

Duration: 18 months (30 points per quarter),
36 months (15 points per quarter)

Delivery: Fully online

Intakes: April and September

Is this programme for me?

The Master of Property Practice* is suited to recent non-property graduates as well as mid-career industry professionals who have not completed a property qualification and would like to enhance their employability and career progression.

To be admitted to this programme, you must have completed a bachelors degree with a GPA of 4.0 or higher.

A flexible PGDipBus pathway (overleaf) is available for applicants who do not have an undergraduate degree. Please talk to our advisers for more information.

This programme is available to domestic students only.

What will I learn?

The MPropPrac is a multidisciplinary and practitioner-focused programme. You will gain advanced knowledge and understanding of valuation, marketing, management, development and construction, law, finance and economics. You will be able to develop personal and professional skills and build networks as you collaborate with others in formulating ethically sound and environmentally responsible solutions to property issues.

A 120-point PGDipPropPrac* and 60-point PGCertPropPrac* (with a specialisation in either Valuation or Property Management) are available for students seeking shorter qualifications.

Career opportunities

Graduates will be equipped to enter or progress career roles in property management, property development, property valuation, consultancy and commercial property agency in industry, government, and not-for-profit sectors.

Enquire now

Email: online.auckland@auckland.ac.nz

**Launching in 2022, subject to regulatory approval.*

No 1

*In New Zealand
for Employability<sup>1</sup>*

Top 10

*In the world
for sustainable development impact<sup>2</sup>*

No 1

*Most innovative university in
New Zealand<sup>3</sup>*

auckland.ac.nz/newprogrammes

Master of Property Practice (MPropPrac)

The MPropPrac is a flexible, practitioner-focused, masters degree (180-points). It has two parts. Part I: 120 points of core courses, Part II: 60 points of advanced courses, including a consultancy project.

Programme Pathways

MPropPrac – direct entry for graduates

Direct entry to the MPropPrac is available to applicants with a completed undergraduate degree (not in Property) with a minimum GPA of 4.0. A 120-point fast-track option is available to graduates with a Postgraduate Diploma in Business in Property Practice. The programme may be completed in 18–36 months, depending on whether a student chooses to complete one (15 points) or two courses (30 points) per quarter.

Master of Property Practice (180 points)
Part I (120 pts)	Part II (includes an industry project) (60 pts)

MPropPrac – pathway for non-graduates

Applicants without a first degree who have at least five years' relevant work experience can enter the MPropPrac through our Postgraduate Diploma in Business (PGDipBus) pathway. By completing a PGDipBus in Property Practice (120 points) with a GPA of 4.0 you can enter the MPropPrac 120-point track and will complete a further 60 points in Part I and 60 points in Part II. We encourage you to talk to one of our advisers to discuss whether this is the best pathway for you.

Exit qualifications

Students who commence the MPropPrac and are unable to continue in the programme may elect to reassign their completed courses to either a Postgraduate Diploma in Property Practice (120 points) or a Postgraduate Certificate in Property Practice (60 points). Students are encouraged to discuss this option with their adviser should their personal or work circumstances prevent them from continuing.