Clinical Psychology

- Has Honours or Masters in Psychology

Apply for Certificate of Proficiency

- Accepted students will be given permission to enrol in Psych 780; Psych 779; Psych 708; Psych 718 and Psych 723

Doctor of Clinical Psychology

Applied Behaviour Analysis

- Has undergraduate degree in Psychology, including Research Methods

Apply for BSc Hons in Preparatory Clin Psych

- Accepted Students will be given permission to enrol in Psych 741, 749, 750, 751, 754, 759

Masters/PhD Options

General Programme

- Accepted students will be given permission to enrol in 700 level courses based on GPA restrictions. Honours students will enrol in 780 & 779

Honours

Named Masters (MOrgPsych, MSLT Prac, MHtlhPsych)

- Entry into Honours; Clinical; MOrgPsych or Masters must have a Research Methods in Psychology course at undergraduate level.

Find the supplementary application forms and guides here

If you do not have this, it may be possible to complete it under a Certificate of Proficiency before applying to the preferred course.

(NB: GradDipAppPsych students: this is imbedded in your modules.)