Congratulations on your acceptance into this Faculty of Education and Social Work programme, and welcome.

This programme induction has been organised as the first step in a career-long process of professional growth.

The induction day is considered by the faculty to be the first official day of your programme of study and you are required to attend.

Today you will:

- Be officially welcomed onto the campus
- Meet key faculty staff
- Learn how to access programme information
- Discover the faculty support services
- Discuss professional expectations and requirements
