

University of Auckland India SDG High School Competition Terms and Conditions

- The competition starts and finishes on the dates specified by the University at the time of entry. If your entry is received outside of this period, you may be disqualified.
- The competition is only open to current high school students from grades 9 to 12 in India. A maximum of nine students per school are allowed to participate in the competition.
- There should only be one entry per person.
- Entrants must register for the competition by completing the Registration Form.
- The University of Auckland will not accept responsibility for any late submissions, any entries that are not received or any entries or files that are corrupt, damaged, lost, or inaccessible.
- By entering, each entrant warrants that their entry is original and that their submission does not or will not infringe any third party's intellectual property.
- There will be no indication of the name of the school or student name revealed anywhere in the poster.
- The prizes are not transferable or exchangeable and cannot be redeemed for cash.
- The rotating trophy awarded to the winning school will be housed at the winning school for one year or until the next year's competition winner is selected, at which point, the trophy will be returned in excellent condition to Ms Vinita Desai, the University of Auckland.
- The trophy is the property of the University of Auckland and must be housed safely at the first-place winner's school, not at the winner's home, and be returned to the University of Auckland upon request.
- By participating in the competition, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions, including all eligibility requirements. You also accept that all decisions made by the University of Auckland are final and binding in all matters relating to the competition.
- The University of Auckland reserves the right to cancel the competition at any time, for any reason and without prior notification.
- The University of Auckland reserves the right to exhibit the names and the posters of the participants/winners on their website, in communications, or any other social media.
